Tried again at night with success. Battallon crossed 4 a.m. Occupied Busple-Long Billeted in schoolhouse. Began making tranches.

Sept. 15—Left the schoolbouse for trenches. Supplies carried up under heavy shell and rifle fire.

Headquarters Shelled,

Sept. 17—Owing either to German sples or acroplane scouts our headquarters brigade and transport was the object of bombardment by howitzers, 249 pound shells inrown. Shelling continued for two hours in the tranches. Six men of my company were killed by one shell. Thank God I escaped unsathed. Verlabble hell on earth.
